Internet Technology Web Hosting Terms and Conditions

The Service:

Internet Technology Services provides Internet server space for a fee for the express purpose of providing http content to the general public. In addition to this our members may also receive Internet mail after taking the steps to set up the mail boxes and forwarding accounts. Users are permitted to access their web space via FTP to upload files for their web sites. In addition to this we may from time to time offer other services that relate to the selling for Internet server space. These services may change from time to time.

Cost and Payment For The Service:

Current pricing information may be obtained from our website at <http://www.batchelors.net>. By accepting this agreement you agree to pay the current rate for the service as indicated on the web site. Internet Technology Services processes transactions in Australian dollars. You agree that any accidental overcharges will be credited to your account or refunded at our discretion. You agree that Internet Technology Services has the right to invoice you for the service until you cancel with service in writing, understanding that it takes 24 hours for such cancellation to take affect. You agree that if payment is not paid for any reason by your bank or credit card company, that we will contact you and you will be given 48 hours to respond. You agree that after this time your account may be disabled until payment is made. If your account is disabled for this reason, you agree to pay US$20.00 re-enabling fee. You agree that refunds to your account after termination whether by Internet Technology Services or by the client will cost a US$10.00 charge.

Refunds:

Internet Technology Services will refund fees for hosting for web accounts if the account is removed from the network and written notification (email) is sent to Internet Technology Services asking for the refund and terminating the account (it takes 24 hours for termination to come into affect). This is paid pro-rata and there is a US$10 fee for refunds. All clients acknowledge the setup fee is non-refundable.

Use of the service:

The use of any of our servers is to be bound by the terms of this agreement, the Internet Technology Services web site at <http://www.batchelors.net>, and other information that is made available to you.

You may not in the use of the service break any state local or federal laws. You agree that Internet Technology Services may remove any information that it finds or is reported to be unlawful. You also understand that Internet Technology Services may terminate your account if it feels that your information is unlawful. You may not in any way send unsolicited bulk e-mail, post to news groups in a way that does not conform with the rules of that group and that can be traced back to our network, your website or you. By doing so you automatically terminate your service with Internet Technology Services. You may not display content from your website promoting SPAM, bulk email or illegal websites or illegal activities.

Availability of the service:

The Internet is a complex network of equipment and for that reason the service may not be available to you at all times. Internet Technology Services will do everything in it's power to maintain availability however a certain amount of down time can be expected. In no way shall Internet Technology Services be held liable for any interruption in service for any cause. Should you not be able to reach your site please contact us at support@batchelors.net to report the problem. Internet Technology Services will repair the problem as soon as possible.

Changes:

The agreement and the service may change from time to time, it will be posted at www.batchelors.net 30 days before you will be bound by the new terms.

Termination:

Both Internet Technology Services and you have the right to terminate your service at any time by providing written notice via email. If you terminate the service it will take up to 24 hours before billing stops.

Legal Action:

Internet Technology Services cannot be held liable for any content posted by clients, or any damages you, your business or any other entity suffer as a result of downtime or termination of your account. Any legal action must be taken in the city of Melbourne, in the state of Victoria in the country of Australia.
